

The hens bonded during their surfing lesson

'Fit Surfers Taught Us Some Moves!'

Bethany Howe, 23, took sister Carly, 26, on a surfing hen do

Carly would have killed me if I'd arranged a stripper. Stereotypical hen dos can be fun, but they're not her thing. She'd put so much effort into making sure her wedding was unique, and she wanted a hen do that was similarly unusual. Plus, some of the hens would have only known Carly out of everyone there, and a drunken night might not have been the best way for everybody to get to know each other. So, I booked a girls-only surfing lesson. When you think of traditional hen dos, there's usually such an emphasis on a night out, but mastering the art of surfing was a real hit with the girls. We went for the all-day package in Newquay through Rip Curl's ESF Surf School at a cost of £55 each – with a free bottle of champagne which finished the day off nicely. We all cheered each other on and it was a great bonding experience.

Most importantly, we still got to enjoy some male gorgeousness. Two fit Australian instructors taught us to surf, and viewing their toned torsos all day was far more tasteful than watching a stripper! They flirted with all 12 of us non-stop. We were all keen to do well just to impress them!"
